Have your say on new laws to protect children and young people

Public consultation is open on proposed changes to the Children and Young People Act 2008.

These changes aim to strengthen families and keep children and young people safe and connected.

Anyone with responsibilities under this Act will be impacted by these changes.

The ACT Government wants to ensure the changes will deliver their intended outcomes and understand what impacted groups will need to successfully implement them.

If you work with vulnerable families, children or young people, we encourage you to have your say.

Consultation closes on 14 November 2023.
